PROHIBITION PARTY

Will Make Great Showing in the Next Campaign,

SO SAYS CHAIRMAN JONES

Party and Bryan, He Says, Being Not in Sympathy with the Prohibition Movement, Have No Chance of Winning.

New York, Feb. 21.—Charles R. Jones, chairman of the prohibition national committee, is in New York on his way to New England, where he will visit a number of places in the interest of his party. He said in an interview that President Roosevelt had lost the confidence of the prohibitionists because he had not arrayed the power of the government against liquor; Bryan had no chance of election to the presidency and Taft no chance for republican nomination because they are not in sympathy with the prohibition movement. Mr. Jones is enthusiastic over the rapid growth of the prohibition sentiment. He said:

"We have gained six prohibition states the last year; we had three states in two years, we expect ten more and soon afterward twelve others. The party convention will be held on July 15 at Columbus, O. There will be 1,512 delegates, the apportionment being based on the party vote of 1904. New York delegates will number 108.

"The prohibition party will make a great showing in this campaign. Prohibition is so strong in the south that there is even a slight chance that the states will adopt a prohibition amendment. If they do not, no prohibition party will support their candidate. New York is the worst state we have to face, and this city, next to Chicago, is the worst."

KILLED IN SNOWDRIFTS.

Many Passenger Trains Were Snowbound in Michigan.

Detroit, Michigan, Feb. 21—At least a dozen passenger trains poked their noses into impervious snowdrifts all throughout the state of Michigan Wednesday. Some of these trains were still snowbound. Traffic was completely tied up Thursday on the Kalamazoo, Lake Shore and Chicago railroad on the Port Austin division and on the Pere Marquette only one train has been over the line. The Allegan division of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern was completely blocked, and also the Midland, Bay City, Alma division of the Michigan Central.

The westbound Wolverine flyer on the Michigan Central buried itself near Jackson in a drift out of which five engines were unable to release it. The passengers were transferred to another train and were carried past the drift on the eastbound track. Over one hundred men were set to work with shovels to dig out the snow from the "flyer."

Other trains were snowbound during the day near Ionia, Lottieville, Rockerville, Owendale, Allegan, Kalamazoo, Adrian and Munich.

C. & O. Elects Directors.

Mobile, Ala., Feb. 21.—At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Mobile and Ohio railroad company the following persons were elected members of the board of directors for the ensuing year: W. Butler Duncan, William W. Finley, C. C. Cuyler, Adrian Iselin, Jr., Thomas H. Hubbard, Henry Hall, W. Emlen Roosevelt, L. L. Russell, C. Sidney Shepard, H. Stevens, Samuel Wolverton, D. Lankford and A. W. Thornton.

Orange Market Gorged.

Montgomery, Ala., Feb. 21.—That the orange market of Florida is gorged is stated by letters received in this city by W. A. Belcher, of Largo, who asks Mayor Teague to help in relieving the congestion by urging buying at this end. It is said that fruit that has been on the trees at this time of the season can be kept over for next year.

CARTRIDGE IN MAIL.

Loaded Envelopes Are Found in Kentucky Postoffice.

Versailles, Ky., Feb. 21.—While Assistant Postmaster T. Kelly White was stamping the incoming mail here a cartridge in an envelope which was being sent through the mails exploded. An investigation proved that the letter in question was one of twenty which were received at the Versailles office, and each, in addition to the blood-red warning to the party addressed, contained a cartridge and a match, indicative, no doubt, of the intention of the sender should the warnings not be heeded.

The investigation established the fact that the letters were mailed in a street mail box in Georgetown, Ky.

The signatures to the threats are the initials N. R.

The warnings read:

"Scouts inform us that you are determined to raise tobacco this year and are not signing the pledge U. T., and thereby attempt to starve thousands of poor little children and women to death and ruin your neighbors. We now warn you to sign at once and stop talking against us, or take the penalty. By order of the acting committee."

DIAMONDS IN ARKANSAS.

Many Genuine Sparklers Have Been Found in that State.

New York, Feb. 21.—That real diamonds have been found in Arkansas was the statement made in a paper read by George F. Kunz, of New York, one of the foremost American experts on precious stones, before the American institute of mining engineers Wednesday.

Mr. Kunz stated that about 140 diamonds had been found near Murfreesboro, Ark., and that they were without doubt the genuine product of the country. He said:

"From the 200 karats available for examination it appears that the Arkansas area compares favorably with most of those in South Africa. Their average size is fairly good, though so far none larger than 6.5 karats have been found."

POLICE ARE BAFFLED.

Cannot Discover Who Circulated Late Anarchistic Literature.

New York, Feb. 21.—The police, after a three weeks search have given up the attempt to discover the printers and circulators of a circular, thousands of copies of which have been distributed on the east side and thrown from elevated trains.

The circular is addressed to working men and calls on them to procure arms and not only help themselves to whatever they need or want, but to kill "the Wall street parasites."

Several foreign born members of the detective force have been unsuccessful and have finally given up the search. They have come to the conclusion that the circulars were printed in Chicago and sent here to be distributed by anarchists.

Shot and Killed by Negro.

Newton, Ga., Feb. 21.—W. J. Kelly, known as "Peny" Kelly, was killed late Sunday night by being shot in the head by Mack Folks, a negro, who claimed that the deed was done in self-defense. J. G. Norman, justice of the peace acting coroner, ordered Folks held. Some white men are suspected and may become implicated in the crime. The murder was committed in the southwestern part of Baker county about eighteen miles from Newton, at the house of Folks. It is said that Kelly and the negro were both drinking.

Old Officers Re-Elected.

Montgomery, Ala., Feb. 21.—R. B. Dumont, colonel, and J. G. Hubbard, lieutenant colonel, have been elected to their old places with the First regiment. Colonel Dumont will likely never be opposed as long as he cares to command the First. He is regarded by regular army men as the best soldier in the guard service in the south.

Senate Passes Prohi Bill.

Jackson, Miss., Feb. 15.—The senate on Thursday passed the statutory prohibition bill by a vote of 18 to 4. The bill is effective Dec. 31.

KIDNAPPERS SENTENCED.

Man Gets 30 and Wife 25 Years in the Penitentiary.

Chicago, Feb. 21.—William Jones, also known as William Birmingham, and his wife, Alzina Jones, were found guilty by a jury in Judge Kern's court of having kidnaped Lillian Wulff, a twelve-year-old girl, from her home in Chicago last December. The punishment of Jones was fixed at thirty years and that of his wife at twenty-five years in the penitentiary.

The Wulff girl was enticed from her home in the southern portion of the city by Alzina Jones, early in December, 1907, and forced into a covered wagon in which Jones was waiting. A week later Jones and the girl were found near Momence, Ills. Jones and his wife were arrested and brought back to Chicago with the girl. Jones endeavored to shift the blame on his wife, asserting that it was to console her for the loss of a child by death and at her instance that he took the child.

The woman testified at the trial that she was forced by Jones, under threats of death, to steal the child, that he might train her to beg for him. The child testified that after being taken prisoner, her clothing was taken from her and burned by the roadside, and that she was whipped by Jones on several occasions when she attempted to escape. When found she was clothed in rags.

BOLD DIAMOND ROBBERY.

In Broad Daylight Men Take Tray of Valuable Jewels.

New Orleans, Feb. 21.—A $15,000 robbery in broad daylight in the heart of New Orleans, with hundreds of persons passing at the time was perpetrated here Wednesday afternoon at the jewelry store of M. Waldhorn & Co., Conti and Royal streets.

Two men drove up in front of the store in a buggy. One of them alighted and smashed one of the large plate glass windows in the front of the establishment. He quickly seized two trays filled with diamonds, and jumping back into the buggy, was driven off. A large crowd started in pursuit, but men, buggy and horse were soon lost to sight in a cloud of dust in the old French quarters.

The proprietors of the jewelry store say the trays contained 112 diamond rings, whose value was between $15,000 and $20,000.

SUICIDES IN JAIL CELL.

Man Found Hanging by Leather Strap With Life Extinct.

Atlanta, Feb. 21.—Hanging by an overcoat strap from a bunk in his cell, in the famous north wing, third tier, Fulton county jail, from which Barton and Harper recently made an escape, E. G. Scott, a man about forty-one years of age, being held for lunacy, was found by a fellow prisoner, Julien Pitts, also in prison on the charge of lunacy. Life was extinct when the man was found.

Scott was brought to the jail Sunday afternoon, it being declared that he had made a previous attempt on his life by taking carbolic acid. The only reason that can be assigned is that he is said to have had considerable money in the Neal bank.

Furnace Resumes Operations.

Birmingham, Ala., Feb. 21.—With the blowing in of the iron furnace at Holt, Ala., Wednesday, four foundry ironmakers have resumed operations since Jan. 1. The total in the state in operation is sixteen, of which nine are in Jefferson county. Iron sales continue to be chiefly in small lots. The reorganization committee of the Southern Steel company will meet in New York about March 1, when plans will be announced for putting the numerous plants of this company into operation.

Evans Still in Poor Health.

Callao, Feb. 21.—The last wireless dispatch from the Connecticut says that Rear Admiral Evans is still in poor health and that Rear Admiral Charles M. Chambers, commander of the second squadron and third division of the fleet, has assumed charge of the vessel. From an early hour on Thursday morning the street cars coming into Callao were crowded with passengers who were eager to witness the arrival of the American vessels.

JOBS SCARCE ON ISTMUS.

Canal Commission Reducing Working Forces in All Divisions.

Washington, Feb. 21.—Reductions in force are being made by the isthmian canal commission in the divisions of building, construction and that of mechanics, also in the clerical force on the isthmus.

Notwithstanding these facts, there has been a considerable number of unemployed mechanics and clerks migrating to the isthmus recently as a result of the commercial depression in the United States, but their chances of securing employment are very remote. The commission is anxious that prominence be given these facts, as any vacancies that may have to be filled are given to former employees who have not left the isthmus.

Americans who do come, however, and fail to secure work with the commission can seldom find other employment, as the volume of other business is not larg eand the local supply of skilled labor is amply sufficient to meet all demands.

RAID OF NIGHT RIDERS.

Visit Kentucky Town and Terrorize the Inhabitants.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Feb. 21.—The town of Gracey, in West Christian county, was visited Tuesday night by a band of twenty-five masked night riders. After taking possession of the telephone exchange and taking Town Marshal Waters prisoner they terrorized the inhabitants by firing guns and pistols.

Forcing James Wooten, a white man who was occupying a room at a hotel, to accompany them, the night riders took him to the outskirts and whipped him, ordering him to leave town by morning. After leaving a warning for the negroes to go to work, the band rode off into Trigg county.

Wooten was suspected of being a detective.

DIED AT AGE OF 96.

Was Few Surviving Widows of War of 1812.

East Orange, N. J., Feb. 21.—Mrs. Elizabeth Barnum, one of the few surviving widows of the war of 1812, died Wednesday at the age of ninety-six. She was born in Vermont. Her husband, Enoch Barnum, of Franklin, Conn., was a cousin of P. T. Barnum, the famous circus man. He was a mere boy when the second war with England broke out, but ran away from home and joined the Vermont regiment. He did several years ago.

Mrs. Barnum is survived by three sons, a daughter, sixteen grand-children and fourteen great grand-children.

Andover, Mass., Feb. 21.—The will of Vernum Lincoln, just probated, leaves $500 to the treasurer of the town of Andover in trust for the purpose of providing prizes for the annual old-fashioned spelling matches to take place here.

It is provided that the matches shall take place in a public hall, the contestants being between ten and eighteen years of age, the old-fashioned method of "choosing up" to be used.

Prizes of $10, $6 and $4 are to be awarded yearly to the three who are last to be "spelled down."

Fair for Macon, Ga.

Macon, Ga., Feb. 21.—The action of the public property committee of the city council in conference with a number of prominent business men of the community, reveals that the Central City is to have one of the best fairs this fall that money and talent can get together. J. N. Neel, A. H. Small, R. M. Williams, Jim Hicks and Dan Adams and a number of other prominent business men are the promoters, and the first step was the securing of the grounds and buildings at Central City park.

Arrested on Forgery Charge.

Portland, Ore., Feb. 21.—Howard C. Green, formerly private secretary to J. C. Fargo, president of the American Express company, was arrested here Wednesday night at the request of New York state authorities on charges of forgery and defalcation.

A HARRIMAN VICTORY.

Decision In the Illinois Central Litigation.

IN COURTS SINCE LAST FALL.

Judge Hall Dissolves the Temporary Injunction Granted to Stuyvesant Fish, Which Gives E. H. Harriman a Complete Victory.

Chicago, Feb. 21.—E. H. Harriman has gained a complete victory in the Illinois Central litigation which has been in the superior court since last fall.

Judge Hall has rendered a decision dissolving the temporary injunction granted to Stuyvesant Fish by which 286,231 shares of stock were enjoined from being voted at the annual meeting of the Illinois Central Railroad company. This stock, which was held by the Union Pacific company of New Jersey can now be voted at the annual meeting which will be held in this city March 2.

The decision of Judge Hall was quite extended, amounting to about 10,000 words. After reciting the history of the case and going at considerable length into the various claims and assertions made by both sides.

TOO MANY AUTOS.

Automible Cab Business in Bad Way in Berlin.

Berlin, Feb. 21.—The automobile cab business in Berlin is in a very bad way; in fact, the business is so unsatisfactory that one of the leading companies suspended operations this week and is now trying to arrange for a reorganization. The crisis is due to the over production of both automobiles and horse cabs.

The latter vehicles have increased from 8,000 to 13,000 within the last three years, and the number of automobiles also has been materially augmented. Several new automobile companies have appeared in the field, but some of them have been already forced to suspend.

Some German automobile cab manufacturers have been working recently on American orders, but latterly even this business has been very materially reduced because of the financial crisis in the United States.

RACE TRACK GAMBLING.

Hearing Is Begun in the Bills to Prohibit.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 21.—The first hearing on the anti-race track gambling bills of Senator Agnew and Assemblyman Hart, were heard on Wednesday. The great assembly chamber was crowded to its capacity with those interested in both sides of the question.

A feature of the hearing was a letter from Dr. Lyman Abbott, in which he characterized the Percy-Gray law, "which makes gambling legal on one side of the fence and illegal on the other," as ethically and logically absurd.

"There is only one argument adduced in favor of race track gambling," said Dr. Abbott, "namely, that it improves the breed of horses. The answer to that is conclusive—it deteriorates the breed of men."

New York Without a Mayor.

New York, Feb. 21.—New York city is temporarily without a mayor. Mayor McClellan is at his home in Princeton, N. J., suffering from an attack of grip. President McGowan, of the board of aldermen, whom the law designates as acting mayor in absence of the actual mayor, is in Albany, appearing before the legislative committee, and Alderman Sullivan, vice chairman of the board, is in Hot Springs.

Casks of Gold Found.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 21.—A private dispatch received here from Kamenets, in Podolia, reports the discovery in an ancient quarry, of a quantity of gold contained in thirteen casks and estimated to be worth $750,000. It is thought that this treasure was hidden in this quarry centuries ago at the time of the Tartar invasion.

PALATKA VISITED BY ANOTHER FIRE

Planing Mill of Tilghman & Sons Was Completely Destroyed.

A BIGG LOSS, NO INSURANCE

The Mill Was One of the Largest of its Kind in East Florida—Several Small Craft Moored to Dock Also Burned—Tilghman's Second Loss.

Information was received in this city Friday night of the burning of the big planing mill of N. J. Tilghman & Sons, at Palatka, entailing a heavy loss, with no insurance.

The building, which was an immense one, was located on the river front, and several small craft moored to the dock and at anchor in the stream near the building, were burned. It was with the greatest difficulty that the fine tugboat, the property of the company, was saved. This boat was partially burned, but can be repaired at small cost.

The Tilghmans have played in great misfortune recently, as about three weeks ago they lost by fire a large quantity of lumber and shingles, together with a portion of their docks, the aggregate value of which was about $17,000, with no insurance.

The shingle mill is the only part of the former big plant intact. It is stated, however, that the firm will rebuild at once.

The Tilghmans own and operate the cypress mill known as the Lukens mill, near Cedar Key, having purchased the same about two years ago.

FLAG STEALING CONTEST.

University Soldiers Will Have Exciting Experience This Afternoon.

The soldier boys of the University will participate in a novel and exciting contest this afternoon, being designated as a flag-stealing contest, the object of which is for opposing forces to make an attempt to capture the colors.

This event, which promises to prove of deep interest and enthusiasm, will begin at 12:30 and last until dark. The maneuvering grounds will be from the Tampa and Jacksonville railroad tracks to Hogtown Creek.

The batallion of cadets will be divided into two forces, which will oppose, and the boys are anticipating this event with a great deal of enthusiasm, each feeling confident of success.

The public is invited to follow up this contest, and are assured of a pleasant afternoon.

FRIDAY'S FIRE.

Prompt Action of Department Saved Probably Heavy Damage.

An alarm of fire was turned in from Box 43 Friday at 12:30 o'clock p. m., creating the usual excitement.

The home of Ferdinand Bayer, East Arlington street, was the scene of the fire, and had it not been for the prompt arrival and action of Gainesville's crack fire department, considerable damage might have resulted, as the fire, which originated on the kitchen roof, had gained sufficient headway to make quite a blaze. The damage was slight, being about $25.

Mr. Bayer requests The Sun to express his thanks to the members of the department for their prompt response and efficient service.

Mr. Bayer also desires to thank J. B. Brooks, who was among the first on the scene, for his valuable aid in extinguishing the flames.

MURRAY COMEDY COMPANY.

Presented a Good Show to a Comparatively Small Audience.

The audience which greeted the Murray Comedy Company at the opera house last night was not as large as it should have been, considering the merits of the company, which is one of the best of its kind that has visited Gainesville this season.

The company presented last night the four-act comedy-drama, "Down on the Farm," with a cast perfectly competent to fill the respective roles. This is a story of New England farm life, and its portrayal was as natural as the old farm itself.

Between the acts there were several specialties, all of which were good.

The company will present at a matinee this afternoon that old but popular play, "Little Lord Fountleroy," while tonight the engagement will be closed with the presentation of "The Black Flag."

New Settlers Arrive.

Having become attracted to this section on account of the moral, religious and educational atmosphere, W. T. Jackson, a prominent citizen of Earle, Kansas, has purchased the Lebon farm, a short distance west of Gainesville, and will make this his future home.

Mrs. Jackson and children are already here, and are pleasantly located on the farm. Mr. Jackson expects to follow as soon as it is possible to straighten his business affairs at Earle.

The family will be warmly welcomed to this section, and it is hoped they will not be disappointed in the change.

Chance to Get Even.

"Your boy that went from home is a playin' of the devil in Pennsylvania."

"That'll be all right," said the old man, "ef he'll jest raise h—l with the coal trust whilst he's at it!"

"It's an Ill Wind," Etc.

"During the blizzard," says The Adams Enterprise, "we got mad and threw our old handpress out o' the window. A fellow came along, carted it away, and is now advertising it through the county as a new-style corn-sheller!"

Billville at the Play.

When Chauncey Olcott was here an old Billville farmer had a front seat at the play, and when he heard the line "He looked Death in the face and got a wife," the old man muttered, audibly:

"Mebbe, ef he'd 'a' took a second look he'd 'a' changed his mind an' lived single!"

Time to Break Silence.

An old Georgia darky stopped on the street, with a broken saw in his hand, and, looking the saw over, said:

"Dar, now—d—n you!"

"What's the matter, old man?" asked a curious bystander.

"Well, suh," he replied, "once 'pon a time I sawed wood an' said nuttin'! now I broke my saw, an' I said somepin,!"

"Ashes of Roses."

One of the first poems written by Elaine Goodale Eastman—in her twelfth year—was the beautiful lyric, "Ashes of Roses:"

"Soft on the sunset sky
Bright daylight closes,
Leaving when light doth die,
Pale hues that mingling lie—
Ashes of roses.

"When love's warm sun is set,
Love's brightness closes;
Eyes with soft tears are wet,
In hearts there linger yet,
Ashes of roses."

That poem was accepted and printed in a leading magazine, and gave the 12-year-old singer light on the literary road.

The Old Man Goes Fishing.

"The ol' man's been a-fishin' right frequently sence prohibition," said the ol' woman, "an' I kin tell by his actions after he gets home what sorter bait he fished with. When he cusses out the whole fishin' business as no good, an' says the river might's well be as dry as the State, I know by that that he hain't had nary a dram; but when he swears ter ketchin' a fish as long as the lie he's tellin', I well knows that his train come in! Last night he come from the river lookin' like a drowned rat, an' 'lowed that a sturgeon—ten foot long ef he wuz a inch—had pulled him in the river, an' ef it hadn't been fer a friendly alligator, he'd a-drowned shore enough. The alligator, havin' jest woke up from his long winter sleep, was makin' for the shore to swaller a lightard-knot fer his breakfast, an' he got straddle of him, an' come ci'ar o' the water. Now, that don't mean but one thing, an' that wuz that his train come in, an' he'd drammed so much that him an' the jug fell in the river! An' what gits me is, when he's a-lyin' like that he full believes it's as true as what the preacher says 'bout whar he's a-goin' to 'for he knows it! An' kase I don't say nuthin'—only jest look an' listen—he thinks it's all Bible to me! But I'll say this: I wuz fooled once—when I married him—but he hain't never fooled me sence!"

THE VALUE OF PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE

Personal knowledge is the winning factor in the culminating contests of this competitive age and when of ample character it places its fortunate possessor in the front ranks of

The Well Informed of the World.

A vast fund of personal knowledge is really essential to the achievement of the highest excellence in any field of human effort.

A Knowledge of Forms, Knowledge of Functions and Knowledge of Products are all of the utmost value and in questions of life and health when a true and wholesome remedy is desired it should be remembered that Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., is an ethical product which has met with the approval of the most eminent physicians and gives universal satisfaction, because it is a remedy of Known Quality, Known Excellence and Known Component Parts and has won the valuable patronage of millions of the Well Informed of the world, who know of their own personal knowledge and from actual use that it is the first and best of family laxatives, for which no extravagant or unreasonable claims are made.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent family laxative. As its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well Informed of the world to be the best we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of—Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects, always note, when purchasing the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package, whether you call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

The "biggest advertising" precedes and prepares the way for the "bigger store."

Every dollar you spend for unadvertised things may be partly wasted. Not always—but often!

We should think that recent Tillman-Rockefeller conference sufficient cause for another message to Congress.

Former Secretary of the Treasury Shaw is running about the country like a politician out of a job, but anxious to get one.

The Ohio Republicans are so bitter against each other that they are appealing to the courts to decide which owns the "machine."

Even a timid or "scared" advertiser is not in much harder plight than an indifferent one. No store will thrive in the hands of either!

The print-paper combine weighs heavily on the newspaper publishers, but still a Republican Congress refuses to put print paper and wood pulp on the free list.

The Kansas Legislature has refused to pass a law to carry out the plan of Mr. Bryan for guaranteeing bank deposits, although the extra session was called for that purpose.

Perhaps the reason Senator Beveridge is so anxious for a non-partisan tariff commission is because he sees trouble ahead for the Republican party on the tariff issue.

Correspondents are again informed that their articles will be consigned to the waste basket unless duly signed by the writer. Several communications have met this fate during the past week.

Hetty Green, in her Boston interview, said that she saw the handwriting on the wall two years ago and began to withdraw her money from the market. Now we know who started the "panic."

No one is apt to think more highly of a store than its owner does—hence his advertising should be so big that it will reflect his belief in his store's importance—and so continuous that it will have the force of iteration.

Secretary Bonaparte is sure that the only way to reach the trusts is to fine them. Most other people think that cutting off their tariff protection would make them more miserable and, moreover, help those who consume trust products.

A GEORGIA GIRL'S DIARY.

While many diaries of the days of the Confederacy have found their way into print, most of them unfortunately read as though written for publication, and one cannot help suspecting that they have been edited by the authors before being given to the world. In its March number, however, Appleton's Magazine prints extracts from a real diary which gives the actual day-to-day impressions of a seventeen-year-old Georgia girl in those trying months when Sherman was spreading devastation across one of the most fertile regions of the Southland. This young girl, whose heart and soul was filled with enthusiasm for the cause of the South, was Miss E. F. Andrews, who is still living, a gray-haired lady now, in her native State. She protested strongly against having her girlish thoughts and impressions put before the public, and it was with difficulty that the editor of Appleton's induced her to consent to the publication of extracts from her diary. There is much that is frivolous and unimportant in the diary, as might be expected in the case of a vivacious girl of seventeen, but these very touches, as in the naration of the April-fool antics of the young people, gives the picture a living touch and helps to bring into stronger relief the grim realties of war which are so simply told. For instance, at the end of the long trip full of hardship and suffering which the young girl makes with her sister from Camack to Macon through the region that had just been desolated by Sherman, the buoyant nature of youth crops out in a pretty display of vanity.

"It was delightful," she writes, "to get into clean, comfortable quarters at the Lanier House. Metta got into bed and went right to sleep, and I lay down for awhile, but was so often disturbed by friendly messages and inquiries that I got up and dressed for dinner. I put on my pretty flowered merino that had been freshened up with black silk ruchings that completely hid the worn places, and the waist made over with Elizabethan sleeves so that it looked almost like a new dress, besides being very becoming, as the big sleeves helped out my figure by their fullness. I frizzed my hair carefully and put on the headdress of black velvet ribbon and gold braid that Cousin Sallie Farley gave me. I think I must have looked nice, because I heard several people inquiring who I was when I went into the dining-room."

Better than any history, no matter how well written, does such a narative of hardships gayly borne and of courage in the face of overwhelming disaster, portray the spirit in which the women of the South faced the dark days of '64.

The State Labor Bureau of New York reports the number of men out of work have increased from 12 to 34 per cent in consequence of the panic. No wonder the "bread lines" are long in the cities. How will the Republican politicians explain next fall that the tariff has not protected those unemployed workingmen, which the tariff law says was enacted to provide revenue and encourage industries?

Senator LaFollette has offered an amendment to the railroad-rate law directing the Interstate Commerce Commission to examine and report upon the value of all the physical properties of common carriers engaged in interstate commerce, with the view of fixing reasonable and just rates. That strikes at the root of unreasonable rates and is the only way reform can be accomplished.

"CUCKOO"—PEE-WEE."

Certain self-styled anti-corporation papers have for some time applied to other papers, which, they claim, are corporation-controlled, the ignominious term "cuckoo." John Collins of The True Democrat has come back at them with a counter term peculiarly apt and appropriate, proving that in the coining of epithets, it is Greek met Greek. John's word is "pee-wee." In our boyhood days a "pee-wee" was a small marble—the very smallest of the marble family, if we remember correctly—and ordinarily made of the cheapest substance—clay, if we mistake not. John has fallen upon a good name—it is a small man indeed, smaller editor, still, who would try by innuendo and insinuation, to cast reproach upon a brother. Such conduct only serves to bring the press itself into disrepute and make ridiculous those who are engaged in a lofty and exalted profession. We wish for the good of the cause that such journalism would cease.—Madison New Enterprise.

Are you making use of every one of the 600,000,000 cells in your brain? Or are most of them plugged up with stupid laziness? Each one of those cells represents a unit of work, just as each cell in the honey-comb means a certain amount of labor for the bee. The bee-hive cells are filled with honey and the cells of your brain are filled with protoplasm. This protoplasm may be dead, useless stuff, or it may be the active, wide-awake kind. Is the protoplasm in your brain dead or alive? If most of it is dead, then wake it up. Stimulate it with some good old-fashioned hard-headed thinking. Don't be afraid to think hard. If you are not required to think constantly in your present position, get a job where you will have to use all your brains. The average weight for the human brain is 300 grams. The monkey's brain weighs 150 grams. If you are using only half your brain, then you are no better off than the monkey, and who wants to be a monkey? When you accept a position with a concern you are selling your brains—all of them. Be fair in the matter. Be fair with your employer, and be fair with yourself. Give him all you have. Let the convolutions in your gray matter grow deeper. Get the benefit of every one of the 600,000,000 cells. Don't be a monkey, but use all your brains.

The revised idea of the ship-subsidy bill has been reported favorably by the Senate Committee on Commerce. This time it takes the form of postal subsidies, but what it will be amended to before it is finally passed only the Republican managers can tell. Anyhow, the people will have to pay the bill every year, and it will not be small ones either.

A Lazy Liver

May be only a tired liver, or a starved liver. It would be a stupid as well as savage thing to beat a weary or starved man because he lagged in his work. So in treating the lagging, torpid liver it is a great mistake to lash it with strong drastic drugs. A torpid liver is but an indication of an ill-nourished, enfeebled body whose organs are weary with over work. Start with the stomach and allied organs of digestion and nutrition. Put them in working order and see how quickly your liver will become active. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has made many marvelous cures of "liver trouble" by its wonderful control of the organs of digestion and nutrition. It restores the normal activity of the stomach, increases the secretions of the blood-making glands, cleanses the system from poisonous accumulations, and so relieves the liver of the burdens imposed upon it by the defection of other organs.

If you have bitter or bad taste in the morning, poor or variable appetite, coated tongue, foul breath, constipated or irregular bowels, feel weak, easily tired, despondent, frequent headaches, pain or distress in "small of back," gnawing or distressed feeling in stomach, perhaps nausea, [illegible] or "risings" in throat after eating, and kindred symptoms of weak stomach and torpid liver, no medicine will relieve you more promptly or cure you more thoroughly than Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Perhaps only a part of the above symptoms will be present at one time and yet point to torpid liver or biliousness and weak stomach. Avoid all hot bread and biscuits, griddle cakes and other indigestible food and take the "Golden Medical Discovery" regularly and stick to its use until you are vigorous and strong.

The "Discovery" is non-secret, non-alcoholic, is a glyceric extract of native medicinal roots with a full list of its ingredients printed on each bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. Its ingredients are endorsed and extolled by the most eminent medical writers of the age and are recommended to cure the diseases for which it is advised.

Don't accept a substitute of unknown composition for this non-secret MEDICINE OF KNOWN COMPOSITION.

A VERY IMPORTANT DECISION RENDERED.

Stock Not Permitted to Range Upon National Forests.

Washington, D. C. Feb. 20.—United States Attorney Carl Rasch of Montana has notified Gifford Pinchot, Chief of the United States Forest Service, that the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, at San Francisco, has affirmed the decision of Judge Hunt in the grazing trespass case instituted by the Government against Thomas Shannon.

No copy of the decision has yet been received by the Forest Service, but it is believed that it forbids stockmen to allow their cattle to drift upon the national forests, and that the national forests need not be fenced to prevent such drifting, although the State laws may make such fencing necessary for private lands.

In December, 1904, Shannon allowed his cattle to drift upon the Little Belt national forest in Montana. To put a stop to this suit was brought by the United States, and on March 18, 1907, Judge Hunt, in the United States circuit court for that State, rendered a decision in favor of the Government, and issued an injunction perpetually restraining Shannon from allowing his cattle to drift upon the forests. Montana has a fence law by which land owners must fence their lands before they can obtain redress from stockmen whose cattle, feeding upon the open field domain, range upon and injure the private lands.

Shannon's counsel argued that this State law should apply as against the United States, but Judge Hunt held that the power of Congress over the public lands, including the national forests, is complete; that Congress has lawfully delegated to the Secretary of Agriculture the authority to make regulations to protect the forest; that the Secretary had properly made a regulation that cattle must not range upon the forests without permit, and that consequently Shannon was a trespasser when he allowed his cattle to drift upon the Little Belt forest, although it was unfenced.

Shannon appealed from this decision, and as Montana is in the Ninth Federal Judicial Circuit, which embraces most of the Rocky Mountain and Pacific States, his appeal was heard by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, sitting at San Francisco. The court has now affirmed Judge Hunt's decision, and this judgment is binding upon all Federal courts in the circuit. A similar case is pending in the United States Circuit Court for Colorado, which is in the Eighth circuit.

DELIGHTFUL TEA PARTY.

Mrs. Wm. B. Taylor Entertained in Elegant New Home Wednesday.

Mrs. William Baker Taylor was hostess Wednesday afternoon at her elegant new home, giving a violet tea to her friends, nearly 150 of whom enjoyed her hospitality during the receiving hours, from 3 to 6 o'clock.

The lower floor of this beautiful modern home was opened en suite, and pretty Miss Elizabeth Taylor, in a white embroidered gown, opened the door for her mother's guests.

The ladies receiving in the drawing-room were the gracious hostess, Mrs. William B. Taylor, who was becomingly gowned in white silk, elaborately trimmed with valenciennes; Mrs. Fred W. King of Jacksonville, in a delicate pink satin chiffon, with duchess lace; Mrs. Roselle C. Cooley of Jacksonville, in cream silk mull and lace, with touches of violet velvet; Mrs. Thos. G. Metz of Wilmington, Del., in an elaborate gown of net, inset with valenciennes; Mrs. G. H. Yancey, one of the season's brides, in a dainty French robe of lace.

At the punch bowl in the reception hall, Mrs. A. S. Wooley of Seaford, Del., and Mrs. W. M. Johnson served, assisted by Miss Lucille Colclough, Miss Jessie Bodiford and Misses Annie and Ruth Scarrett. At the coffee table in the library Mrs. Watson Porter and Mrs. J. Dogan Stringfellow served the delicious beverage. Both the punch and coffee tables were banked in beautiful pink azalias.

The crowning artistic touch in this beautiful reception was the dining-room, elaborately decorated with quantities of violets, while on the mantel, sideboard, plate rail and throughout the house, rows of lighted waxen candles shed soft light, and brought out the delicate tracery of the vines of smilax and asparagus fern. The dining table was laid with a cloth of Mexican drawn work, and as a center decoration a basket of violets, the handle tied with white maline, rested upon a large reflector. Asparagus fern and violets surrounded the reflector, and also surrounded the table, and crystal dishes of mints were set at intervals. On sideboard and mantel were delicate vines, caught with bunches of violets.

The large stained glass window, with its decoration of sprangia and row of lighted candles, was a beautiful note in the artistic room.

A buffet course of salads and sherbet was served throughout the afternoon, the ladies serving being Miss Bessie King, Miss Bettie Miller, Miss Marguerite Stringfellow, the Misses Prince, Miss Annie Cannon and Miss Elise Walker.

Ladies assisting throughout the house were Mrs. Sam Thomas, Mrs. William Hill, Mrs. F. D Warner, Mrs. John W. Tench, Mrs. J. M. Dell, Jr., Mrs. Sam Dell, Mrs. L. C. Lynch, Mrs. C. A. Colclough, Mrs. E. E. Cannon, Miss Lois Hale, Mrs. W. M. Dale.

Mrs. Dunham's beautiful voice, and the piano playing of Miss Burkhim and Miss Thomas, added greatly to the brilliancy of the afternoon.

The ease and grace of the hostess in receiving her guests, the number of handsome and elegantly gowned ladies, and the cordiality and charm of the numbers of ladies assisting, rendered Mrs. William Baker Taylor's reception one of the most notable events of the present social season in Gainesville.

NATURE SPARES

The Stricken Rose From Grief.

What a fortunate provision of nature it is, that deprives the rose of mental suffering; for how poignant would be its grief to discover, in the height of its blooming glory, that a canker fed at its heart, and that its beauty and fragrance were doomed forever. Nature always spares the suffering; she is a veritable store-house of pleasing rewards, for those who seek her aid. In the years gone by failing hair and grayness have cast a gloom over the lives of thousands of young women, but thanks to the investigations of scientists the true cause of hair destruction is now known to be a germ or parasite that burrows into the hair follicles. Newbro's Herpicide absolutely destroys this germ, thus permitting the hair to grow as nature intended. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

A PLEASANT AFFAIR.

Mesdames Graham and Haile Tender Friends Delightful Card Party.

For the past few weeks many pretty functions have given so much pleasure to the social world.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. J. M. Graham and Mrs. Evans Haile entertained their lady friends with a card party at the lovely residence of the former.

Yellow jessamine formed the pretty decorations in the parlor, lending both beauty and fragrance. In the drawing-room were graceful festoons of English ivy and a proportion of violets. In these rooms was played progressive whist, the party forming ten tables.

The highest score was made by Mrs. J. W. McCollum, to whom was presented an elegant china chocolate pot. To Mrs. Earnest Molnar was given the consolation prize, a box of Huyler's chocolate-dipped cherries.

Amid expressions of pleasure and thanks to the grateful hostesses for the happy afternoon tendered them, the guests took their departure.

During the afternoon delicious refreshments, consisting of chicken and turkey salads, olives, wafers, coffee, etc., were daintily served, which it is needless to add were relished.

Some Fine Florida Beef.

Louis Rawls of Alachua has always enjoyed the reputation of being one of the most successful planters and stockmen in the county, and this has been demonstrated in the latter case.

Mr. Rawls brought to Gainesville Friday a beef raised and butchered on his farm which resembled in size and fatness the regular cattle from the Western prairies. This beef attracted a great deal of attention, as it was one of the finest Florida-raised ever seen in this market.

A. T. Kelley Injured.

A. T. Kelley had the misfortune to a painful accident at Kelley's mill on Wednesday, which has caused him no little trouble.

While working at the saw a flying board struck Mr. Kelley in the face, cutting his lip and cheek to such an extent that it became necessary to secure the services of a surgeon, and he was brought to this city, where attention was rendered.

Mr. Kelley is yet suffering, but friends will be glad to learn that he is improving.

Mr. Blackwell also transferred a large number of hogs, mules and other stock. The Messrs. All the Gold IN GEORGIA Could not Buy-

Reding, Ga. August 27, 1906.

Mssrs. E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, Ills.

Gentlemen:—

In 1897 I had a disease of the stomach and bowels. Some physicians told me it was Dyspepsia, some Consumption of the Lungs, others said consumption of the Bowels. One physician said I would not live until Spring, and for four long years I existed on a little boiled milk, soda biscuits, doctors' prescriptions and Dyspepsia remedies that flooded the market. I could not digest anything I ate, and in the Spring 1902 I picked up one of your Almanacs as a poor associated Dyspepsia wreck will grasp at anything, and that Almanac happened to be my life saver. I bought a fifty cent bottle of KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE and the benefit I received from that bottle ALL THE GOLD IN GEORGIA COULD NOT BUY. I kept on taking it and in two months I went back to my work, as a machinist, and in three months I was well and hearty. I still use a little occasionally as I find it a fine blood purifier and a good tonic.

May you live long and prosper.

Yours very truly,

C. E. CORNELL.

POSTAL SAVINGS BANKS.

Senator Knox Introduced Bill to Establish a System.

Washington, Feb. 21.—Senator Knox has introduced a bill to establish a system of postal savings banks.

The bill embodies the plan outlined by Postmaster General Meyer in his annual report and which he has advocated in public addresses as being calculated to encourage economy and thrift, and to afford a place of deposit free from any possibility of doubt or suspicion for vast sums of money which might be otherwise hoarded and kept out of circulation through ignorance or lack of confidence.

The bill authorizes the postmaster general to establish a system of postal savings banks comprised of such money order offices as he may designate for that purpose.

Even from the Mountains

Ballard's Snow Liniment is praised for the good it does. A sure cure for rheumatism and all pains. Wright W. Loving, Grand Junction, Colo., writes: "I used Ballard's Snow Liniment last winter for rheumatism and can recommend it as the best Liniment on the market. I thought, at the time I was taken down with this trouble, that it would be a week before I could get about, but on applying your Liniment several times during the night, I was about in 48 hours and well in three days." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Says Employees Were Thieves.

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 21.—S. X. Goldberg, of the firm of Goldberg Bros., operating a large department store on Woodward avenue, has announced that through a conspiracy among certain of the 250 employees of the establishment, the firm had been robbed of between $25,000 and $30,000 worth of merchandise during the past five years. "By confessions of twelve persons whom we trusted," he said, "we are convinced that we were the victims of a conspiracy with its agents on every floor of our establishment."

Columbus, Ga., Family Nearly Extinct To Be Rapidly Exterminated.

Columbus, Ga., Feb. 21.—Extermination at the rate of one member every two weeks seems to be the fate of the Beverly family on North Highlands.

A few weeks ago the head of the family, B. G. Beverly, died of measles and grip, just a few months after the death of his wife occurred. The next member of the family to go was the son, a young man, who was the only support of his sisters. A few days ago one of the sisters died of the same fatal complication of diseases, and Tuesday another one of the sisters passed away.

There are now four living sisters, and they are all sick of grip and measles, and one of them is thought to be almost in a dying condition.

A Stitch in Time

Will save nine. So will a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup always kept on hand save many a spell of sickness. A sure cure for coughs, colds, bronchitis and whooping cough. Mrs. S.——, Hot Springs, Ark., writes: "I keep a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup in my medicine chest, and thank my forethought many times. It has prevented many severe spells of sickness." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

His Attentions Were Unwelcome.

San Francisco, Feb. 21.—R. Livingston, Russian writer, a personal friend and follower of Count Leo Tolstoi, and brother of Countess Amelia C. Viviani, of Russia, was adjudged insane in Oakland Wednesday because he persistently forced his unwelcome attentions on young women students of the university of California. After being adjudged insane Livingston requested that he be sent to the Napa asylum and the court so ordered.

Don't Put Off

Until tomorrow what you can do today. If you are suffering from a torpid liver, or constipation, don't wait until tomorrow to get help. Buy a bottle of Herbine and get that liver working right. Promptness about health saves many sick spells. Mrs. Ida Gresham, Point, Tex., writes: "I used Herbine in my family for six years, and find it does all it claims to do." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Thaw Denies Divorce Story.

Matteawan, N. Y., Feb. 21.—Harry K. Thaw has denied the reports that he has begun, or is about to begin, proceedings to secure a divorce from his wife, Evelyn Thaw. A letter was sent to Thaw at the state hospital for the insane asking him to reply to the following questions: "Have you begun, or are you about to begin, divorce proceedings against Evelyn?" Thaw returned answer: "No."

Died of Accidental Wound.

Albany, Ga., Feb. 21.—Jesse Scurry, one of the best known saw mill men in this section, died at the Central hotel Tuesday night from the effects of a self-inflicted wound, the result of an accident. Two weeks ago a pistol fell from Scurry's pocket while he was sitting in an Albany office. The ball entered his leg and severed an artery. He nearly bled to death, but rallied and appeared to be doing well until gangrene set in.

Rockefeller Gets Souvenir Penny.

Department Store Burned.

Woburn, Mass., Feb. 21.—Damage estimated at $100,000 was caused early Thursday morning by a fire which destroyed the large department store of James McGrath.

The editor of The Memphis (Tenn.) FATAL END TO FEUD

Kills His Neighbor and Then Surrenders to Officers of Law.

Knoxville, Tenn., Feb. 21.—A special to the Sentinel from Sergent, Ky., says:

At Stewart's Branch, a few miles west of here in Knott county, "Lid" Stewart shot and killed William Stamper, his near neighbor. The killing was the result of a feud of several year's standing.

Stewart then walked three miles to an officer to give himself up. He will be given an examining trial on Friday.
